

I think the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the protection under Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. It is such a relief to not receive 7 or 8 calls during the evening. Now I receive only a few which are usually from charities to which I donate. It's so annoying to sit down with the intention of relaxing after a full day at work only to have the phone ringing constantly. Thank you. Janet Clements